

ACADEMY OF FORENSIC INDUSTRIAL
CHIROPRACTIC CONSULTANTS “AFICC”
PRESENTS:

The Annual AFICC Practice Seminar

Huntington Beach Waterfront Hilton, June 5, 2010

Craig D. Gunderson, DC, AFICC President 8:00 – 9:00 am
Introduction. “Significant legal/workers compensation changes in 2009”
Current CA-MTUS and Chronic Pain Guidelines and their application.
Functional Improvement as defined by the State of California.
(1.0 hours BCE & 1.0 hour QME)

Michael Hubka, DC 9:00 – 10:30 am “Refresher on WPI rating Cervical Spine.”
How to accurately rate cervical spine impairment.
Common errors when rating impairment.
The Good, the Bad, and the Ugly: case examples.
DRE vs. ROM, Review of DRE classification, ROM methodology
(1.5 hours BCE & QME)

Break 15 minutes

Leonard Matheson, PhD. 10:45 – 12:15 pm “Functional Capacity Evaluation”
A Method to Provide an Efficient and Reliable Measure of self-report
Physical Work Capacity for patients with spinal pain.
(1.5 hours BCE & 1.0 hour QME)

Lunch 1 hour: (served 12:15 to 1:15)

Joe Verna, DC 1:15 – 2:15 pm “Work Conditioning Consistent with MTUS.”
Work Conditioning Strategies.
Feasibility for Competitive Employment. Goal Processes.
Evidence Based Medicine and Work Conditioning.
(1.0 hours BCE)

Max Moses, MD 2:15 – 3:15. Special Considerations of an AME Practice
What does the defense attorney request and need?
What does the applicant attorney request and need?
Common special requests regarding Almaraz/Guzman, Escobedo, Benson, etc.
How and why are AMEs chosen?
(1.0 hours BCE & QME)

Break 15 minutes

Ed Cremata, DC 3:30 – 5:00 pm “Report Writing and Testimony”
QME Report writing errors.
QME Report Writing per Escobedo and Almaraz/Guzman, etc.
Advanced aspects and organization of a Worker’ Compensation Medical-Legal Practice Practice.
Chiropractic testimony for criminal, BCE and Civil Cases
Providing Guideline based care without patient compromise.
Colossus-Based record keeping.
Attorney vs. carrier case Assessment.
(2.0 hours BCE & 1.5 hour QME)

Panel Discussion 5:00 –5:50 pm: Questions from audience to the AFICC Board, with moderator controlling the length of their answers and the topics discussed.

ACADEMY OF FORENSIC INDUSTRIAL
CHIROPRACTIC CONSULTANTS “AFICC”
PRESENTS:

The Annual AFICC Practice Seminar
Held at:
Huntington Beach Waterfront Hilton, June 6, 2010

DIVERSIFIED TECHNIQUE

Joe Verna, DC, Ed Cremata, DC and Mike Hubka, DC 9:00am – 1:00pm
Diversified Technique, cervical spine, lumbar spine and extremities.
Complementary use of a Diversified Technique to augment work conditioning.
(4.0 hours BCE Technique)

Course approval pending for 6.0 Hours QME and 12 Hours BCE Credits

Name (Print) _____

License # _____

Mailing Address _____

Telephone _____ Fax: _____

AFICC REGISTRATION COPY