ACADEMY OF FORENSIC & INDUSTRIAL CHIROPRACTIC CONSULTANTS

What is the Academy of Forensic & Industrial Chiropractic Consultants (AFICC) and why should I become a member?

The Academy of Forensic & Industrial Chiropractic Consultants (AFICC) was founded in 1988 by doctors of chiropractic dedicated to expanding their knowledge of forensic medical legal practice. The primary goals of the Academy are foremost educational. Forensic chiropractic involves applied expertise and evaluation in workers' compensation, personal injury, malpractice, rehabilitation and industrial consulting.

AFICC members are committed to a sound body of ethical standards and participate regularly in continuing AFICC educational seminars of unexcelled quality. These seminars continuously provide them with the latest information concerning Jurisprudence, diagnosis and examination protocols from the foremost experts in the forensic field.

Participation in the AFICC assures a contemporary doctor remains knowledgeable and competent to address the constantly increasing and complicated interaction between doctors of chiropractic and the law.

Only those applicants who have completed strict post-graduate educational requirements, submit documentation as required and completed a credentials review process will be accepted as candidates for membership to the Academy.

AFICC Membership Categories - Fellow, Associate and Student-Faculty

Fellow, AFICC

Annual Dues $450.00

The Fellow designation will be awarded to only those individuals who have demonstrated superior and extensive participation in the forensic field of chiropractic. Once awarded the letters "Fellow, AFICC" can be used on letterhead and to denote professional designation as an AFICC Fellow.

1. Independent disability evaluator certification, QME or equivalent as determined by AFICC board.
2. Submission of most recent permanent and stationary, ratable worker's' compensation report and most recent final personal injury narrative report.
3. Curriculum vitae and other verifications as requested by credentials committee chairman
4. Agreement to attend one AFICC sponsored seminar per year.
5. Candidates must have no physical or mental impairments that would preclude them from participating as a consultant, and must be able to demonstrate good standing with their Board of Chiropractic Examiners.
6. Letter of personal recommendation from AFICC Fellow in good standing.
This does not preclude the handicapped from membership.
